Definitions

1. In this Act—

“Act of 2007” means Water Services Act 2007;

“adult” means a person who has attained 18 years of age;

“Commission” means Commission for Energy Regulation;

“customer”, “local authority”, “occupier”, “premises” and “property” have the meanings assigned to each of them, respectively, in section 2 of the No. 2 Act of 2013;

“dwelling” has the meaning assigned to it in section 21(9) of the No. 2 Act of 2013;

“Minister” means Minister for the Environment, Community and Local Government;

“No. 2 Act of 2013” means Water Services (No. 2) Act 2013;

“water services” and “waste water” have the meanings assigned to them, respectively, in section 2(1) of the Act of 2007;

“water meter” means a meter within the meaning of section 71 of the Act of 2007.

Plebiscite on ownership of Irish Water

2. (1) A Bill providing or allowing for the alienation of any share or shares in Irish Water to a person other than a Minister of the Government shall not be initiated by or on behalf of a Minister of the Government in either House of the Oireachtas unless—

- (a) a Resolution of each such House is passed approving a proposal to provide or allow for such alienation,
- (b) a proposal to provide or allow for such alienation is submitted by Plebiscite for the decision of the People, and
- (c) a majority of the votes cast in such Plebiscite shall have been cast in favour of the proposal.

(2) Whenever Resolutions are passed by both Houses of the Oireachtas in respect of the proposal referred to in subsection (1), the Minister may by order appoint the day upon which and during which the poll at the Plebiscite on the proposal shall be held.

(3) An order under subsection (2) shall be published in the Iris Oifigiúil.

(4) On such Resolutions being passed by both Houses of the Oireachtas, the Clerk of the Dáil shall immediately inform the Minister accordingly.

(5) A person who has the right to vote at a referendum on a proposal for an amendment of the Constitution shall have the right to vote in the Plebiscite.

(6) The Plebiscite shall—

- (a) put a proposal for a decision of those persons entitled to vote in the Plebiscite as to whether the Government may, if it wishes to, cause the initiation of legislation as referred to in subsection (1), and
- (b) be held in accordance with regulations made by the Minister providing for the holding of the Plebiscite and for other requirements and arrangements that will apply in relation to the Plebiscite.

(7) The Minister shall publish details of the proposal and the reasons for it to be submitted to the people in the Plebiscite not later than 30 days before the day fixed as the polling day for the Plebiscite.

(8) In this section “Plebiscite” means the Plebiscite to which subsection (1)(b) refers.

Water charges - dwellings

3. (1) Notwithstanding section 21(1) of the No. 2 Act of 2013 F1[and subject to subsection (1A)], Irish Water shall not charge, before 1 January 2015, for water services provided by it to a dwelling.

F2[(1A) (a) Notwithstanding section 21(1) of the No. 2 Act of 2013, Irish Water shall not charge for water services provided to a dwelling in respect of the period (in this subsection referred to as the ‘first-mentioned period’) commencing on 1 July 2016 and ending on 31 March 2017.

(b) Where the Minister is informed by the committee that it will not complete its work on or before 31 March 2017 or is otherwise satisfied that the committee will not complete its work on or before that date, he or she may, on or before that date, make an order extending the first-mentioned period for such further period, commencing on the day immediately following the expiration of the first-mentioned period, as does not exceed the period that he or she believes the committee will require to complete its work and is specified in the order.

(c) For the purpose of enabling the Government to consider the recommendations of the committee, the Minister may—

(i) make an order extending the first-mentioned period for such further period, commencing on the day immediately following the expiration of the first-mentioned period, as he or she considers appropriate and is specified in the order, or

(ii) where an order was made under paragraph (b), make an order extending the first-mentioned period as extended under paragraph (b) for such further period, commencing on the day immediately following the expiration of the period specified in the order under paragraph (b), as he or she considers appropriate and is specified in the order.

(d) Notwithstanding section 21(1) of the No. 2 Act of 2013, Irish Water shall not charge for water services provided to a dwelling in respect of any period specified in an order under paragraph (b) or (c).

(e) Irish Water shall not—

(i) before 31 March 2017,

(ii) (in circumstances where an order is made under paragraph (b)) before the expiration of the period specified in that order,

(iii) (in circumstances where an order is made under paragraph (c)) before the expiration of the period specified in that order, or

(iv) (in circumstances where an order is made under paragraph (b) and an order is made under paragraph (c)) before the expiration of the period specified in the order under paragraph (c), issue a bill for water services provided to a dwelling in respect of the period 1 April 2016 to 30 June 2016.

(f) In this subsection—

‘charge for water services’ does not include a charge to which paragraph (b) of subsection (16) relates;

‘committee’ means a committee established before, on or after the passing of the Water Services (Amendment) Act 2016 by either House of the Oireachtas or by both Houses of the Oireachtas to examine, and make recommendations in relation to, the matter of funding of water services provided to dwellings;

‘first-mentioned period’ has the meaning assigned to it by paragraph (a).]

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to non-domestic water supply and waste water charges made under the approved water charges plan in respect of the period from 1 October 2014 until 31 December 2014.

(3) Subject to this section (other than subsection (16)), Irish Water, during the period from 1 January 2015 until 31 December 2018, shall charge for the provision of water services in respect of each year during that period—

(a) to a dwelling which is occupied by not more than one adult as the place of his or her principal private residence, not more than €160,

(b) to a dwelling which is occupied by 2 or more adults as the place of their principal private residence, not more than €260, and

(c) to a dwelling which is occupied by a person as a place of his or her place of private residence but is not the place of his or her principal private residence, or to a premises which if it were occupied would constitute a dwelling, not more than €260.

(4) Where a dwelling is in receipt of one service in respect of water services provided by Irish Water, that is to say—

(a) the supply of water to the dwelling, or

(b) the removal of waste water from it,

then the maximum charge that Irish Water may charge for that service in respect of the dwelling is an amount that is 50 per cent less than the amount that would be charged for water services to the dwelling in accordance with subsection (3) but for this subsection.

(5) The Minister may, with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform, by order provide that Irish Water shall not charge for the provision of water services to a dwelling more than the amount specified in the order in respect of any period after the period referred to in subsection (3).

(6) Where the Minister proposes to make an order under subsection (5), a draft of the order shall be laid before each House of the Oireachtas, and the order shall not be made until a resolution approving the draft has been passed by each such House.

(7) Subject to subsections (3), (14) and (15), the amount that Irish Water may, during the period from 1 January 2015 until 31 December 2018, charge for the provision of water services to a dwelling in respect of which a water meter has been installed by a metering authority (within the meaning of section 19 of the Water Services Act 2013) shall be—

(a) not more than €1.85 for each 1,000 litres of water supplied by it, and

(b) not more than €3.70 for each 1,000 litres of water supplied and waste water removed by it.

(8) The charging of customers of Irish Water for the provision of water services provided for in this section is deemed to be part of the approved water charges plan.

(9) Irish Water shall make any consequential amendments to the approved water charges plan necessary to provide for the matters provided for in this section.

(10) Irish Water shall when amending the water services plan under subsection (9) submit any part of the amended plan which is consequential to its amendment to the Commission for approval under section 22(8) of the No. 2 Act of 2013.

(11) The household water allowance as outlined in the water charges policy direction under section 42 of the No. 2 Act of 2013 given by the Minister on 2 July 2014 ceases to apply.

(12) A child water allowance provided under the approved water charges plan applies to a person who is not an adult.

(13) Where a dwelling is provided with a water meter installed by Irish Water and, at any time after 1 January 2015, the average annual volume of water provided by Irish Water to that dwelling is found to be such that the charge for that volume, calculated in accordance with the approved water charges plan as provided for in this section, would be less than the maximum charge provided under subsection (3) which has been paid by a customer of Irish Water, then the customer who is charged for the provision to that dwelling of the water consumed is entitled to one and one only rebate.

(14) Where a dwelling is provided with water services by Irish Water on 31 December 2014 and no occupier of that dwelling has registered with Irish Water before such date as the Minister may by order specify, the occupier, for the time being, of that dwelling shall be liable to be charged by Irish Water the amount of €260 in respect of that dwelling for each year up to 31 December 2018 or until such time as an occupier of the dwelling has registered with Irish Water, whichever first occurs. Where the occupier so registers a lower amount may be charged.

(15) Where a dwelling is provided with water services by Irish Water, on or after 1 January 2015, the occupier, for the time being, of the dwelling shall be liable to be charged by Irish Water the amount of €260 in respect of that dwelling for each year up to 31 December 2018 or until such time as an occupier of that dwelling has registered with Irish Water, whichever first occurs. Where the occupier so registers a lower amount may be charged.

(16) Irish Water shall not charge for any services to a dwelling (including its curtilage) other than—

- (a) water services or waste water services provided to the dwelling,
- (b) in relation to the connection of the dwelling to water services and waste water services, and
- (c) reading and testing of water meters requested by a customer of Irish Water in respect of the dwelling.

(17) A charge made by Irish Water of a customer of Irish Water under section 21 of the No. 2 Act of 2013 includes a charge under this section.

(18) In this section “approved water charges plan” means the water charges plan approved by the Commission under section 22(8) of the Act of 2013 on F3[5 March 2015].

F4[Payment of charge on sale of property

3A.(1) In this section—

‘dwelling’ means a premises occupied, or which may be occupied, by a person as his or her place of private residence (whether or not as his or her principal private residence);

‘market value’, in relation to a dwelling, means the price which the unencumbered fee simple of the dwelling would fetch if sold on the open market;

'sale' includes, in relation to a dwelling, the transfer of the dwelling by its owner or any trustee or personal representative of the owner to another person—

(a) in consequence of—

(i) the exercise of a power under any enactment to compulsorily acquire land, or

(ii) the giving of notice of intention to exercise such power,

or

(b) for no consideration or consideration which is significantly less than the market value of the dwelling at the time of its transfer.

(2) The owner of a dwelling (in this section referred to as the 'vendor') who proposes to sell the dwelling shall—

(a) before the completion of the sale, pay to Irish Water any charge under section 21 of the No. 2 Act of 2013 in respect of the dwelling payable by the owner to Irish Water, including any such charge payable by the owner by virtue of section 23A(4) of that Act, and

(b) provide to his or her solicitor—

(i) a certificate of discharge from Irish Water confirming that any such charge has been paid, or

(ii) a statement from Irish Water that any charge under section 21 of the No. 2 Act of 2013 payable in respect of the dwelling is not the liability of the owner.

(3) Where the vendor fails to provide the certificate referred to in subsection (2)(b)(i) or the statement referred to in subsection (2)(b)(ii) before the completion of the sale, the vendor's solicitor shall, before completing the sale, request from the vendor a statement from Irish Water setting out the amount of the charge (if any) under section 21 of the No. 2 Act of 2013 payable by the vendor to Irish Water in respect of the dwelling.

(4) Where the vendor fails to provide the statement referred to in subsection (3), the vendor's solicitor shall, before completing the sale, request such a statement from Irish Water.

(5) The vendor's solicitor shall withhold from the net proceeds of sale remaining (if any), after the discharge of all mortgages and other liabilities relating to the sale, the amount (if any) set out in the statement provided to the solicitor under subsection (3) or (4), as the case may be, and, subject to subsection (6), remit that amount to Irish Water within 20 working days of the completion of the sale of the dwelling.

(6) A remittance of any amount to Irish Water under subsection (5) is without prejudice to any right the vendor may have under—

(a) a complaints procedure provided by Irish Water in accordance with a code of practice approved by the Commission under section 32 of the No. 2 Act of 2013,

(b) the dispute resolution service provided by the Commission under section 8 to customers of Irish Water, or

(c) Part 6 of the Residential Tenancies Act 2004.

(7) Irish Water shall provide a receipt to the vendor's solicitor in respect of any amount remitted to it under subsection (5).

(8) A receipt provided to the vendor's solicitor under subsection (7) shall be in full and final settlement of any obligation imposed on the vendor's solicitor under this section.

(9) A person who is a tenant of a dwelling let to him or her under the Housing Acts 1966 to 2014 and who proposes to purchase the dwelling under a scheme for its purchase shall, before the completion of the sale to him or her, provide to the local authority concerned a certificate of discharge from Irish Water confirming that any charge under section 21 of the No. 2 Act of 2013 in respect of that dwelling payable by the person to Irish Water has been paid, and the sale of the dwelling to him or her shall not be completed until the certificate has been so provided.

(10) Irish Water shall, as appropriate, provide without undue delay—

- (a) to a vendor, on his or her request, a certificate referred to in subsection (2)(b)(i), or a statement referred to in subsection (2)(b)(ii) or (3),
- (b) to a person referred to in subsection (9), on his or her request, a certificate referred to in that subsection, and
- (c) to a vendor's solicitor, on his or her request, a statement referred to in subsection (4) and, where any amount has been remitted to Irish Water under subsection (5), a receipt referred to in subsection (7).]

Water conserva- tion grant - database

F7[5A. (1) The Minister may, for the purposes of paying a grant under section 5 in respect of any year after 2015, arrange for the establishment and maintenance of a database of water services provided to dwellings (in this section referred to as 'the database').

(2) The database shall include the following information in respect of each dwelling:

- (a) details of the water supply to the dwelling;
- (b) details of the treatment of waste water discharged from the dwelling;
- (c) the address of the dwelling;
- (d) the postcode (within the meaning of section 66 of the Communications Regulation (Postal Services) Act 2011), if any, of the dwelling;
- (e) the name of the occupier of the dwelling;
- (f) whether or not the dwelling is the principal private residence of the occupier;
- (g) any unique reference number assigned in respect of the dwelling to the occupier of the dwelling.

(3) A grant under section 5 shall not be payable to any person in respect of a dwelling in respect of any year after 2015 unless on the reckonable date—

(a) the dwelling is—

(i) included in the database, and

(ii) occupied by such person as his or her principal private residence,

or

(b) the dwelling is a dwelling to which subsection (3) or (3A) (inserted by section 49 of the Environment (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2015), as the case may be, of section 5 applies.

(4) The Minister may, in any year after 2015, by order prescribe a date to be the reckonable date for that year, for the purposes of subsection (3).

(5) The Minister may request Irish Water or the Local Government Management Agency (in this section referred to as ‘the Agency’) to establish and maintain the database on behalf of the Minister.

(6) For the purpose of the performance of the Minister’s functions under this section and section 5—

(a) the Minister for Social Protection shall, on the request of the Minister or, where the Minister requests Irish Water or the Agency, pursuant to subsection (5), to establish and maintain the database, Irish Water or the Agency, provide to the Minister, Irish Water or the Agency, as the case may be, so much of the information referred to in subsection (2) provided, whether before or after the coming into operation of section 50 of the Environment (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2015, to the Minister for Social Protection under section 5 or regulations made under that section, as the Minister, Irish Water or the Agency, as the case may be, may reasonably require,

(b) Irish Water shall, on the request of the Minister or, where the Minister requests the Agency, pursuant to subsection (5), to establish and maintain the database, the Agency, provide to the Minister or the Agency, as the case may be, so much of the information referred to in subsection (2) as the Minister or the Agency, as the case may be, may reasonably require in relation to customers of Irish Water, and

(c) the Minister or, where the Minister requests Irish Water or the Agency, pursuant to subsection (5), to establish and maintain the database, Irish Water or the Agency, as the case may be, may request all or any of the information referred to in subsection (2) from the occupier of a dwelling who is not a customer of Irish Water where—

(i) the dwelling is not included in the database, or

(ii) there is any change, after 30 June 2015, in the occupation of a dwelling included in the database, and any such information shall be provided, by reference to the reckonable date concerned, at the time or times and in the form and manner so requested.

(7) The Minister or, where the Minister requests Irish Water or the Agency, pursuant to subsection (5), to establish and maintain the database, Irish Water or the Agency, as the case may be, shall provide to the Minister for Social Protection, at the time or times and in the form and manner agreed between the Minister and the Minister for Social Protection, such information from the database as is reasonably necessary for the purposes of the Minister for Social Protection paying a grant under section 5 on behalf of the Minister.]

Public Water Forum

7. (1) The Commission shall establish a customer consultative forum to be known as the Public Water Forum which is in this section referred to as the “Forum”.

(2) The Forum shall consist of at least 12 and not more than 60 members (including a chairperson).

(3) (a) The Minister shall appoint a person to be the chairperson of the Forum who, in the opinion of the Minister, has appropriate expertise and experience.

(b) An appointment under paragraph (a) shall be for such period not exceeding 3 years as specified by the Minister when appointing the person and shall be on such terms as may be determined by the Minister with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform.

(c) The chairperson shall chair the meetings of the Forum.

(d) In the event of the chairperson being unable to attend a meeting of the Forum, the members of the Forum who are present shall choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

(e) In the event of the office of chairperson being vacant, the Minister shall designate one of the members of the Forum to chair its meetings until a chairperson is appointed.

(4) The Minister shall make regulations in respect of the composition of, and the conditions of membership of, the Forum.

(5) The Forum shall have the following functions:

(a) to represent the interests of customers of Irish Water;

(b) to provide Irish Water with comments and suggestions in relation to the performance by Irish Water of its functions;

(c) to provide the Commission with comments and suggestions in relation to the performance by Irish Water of its functions;

(d) to comment on any policy document produced by Irish Water, when requested to do so in writing by Irish Water;

- (e) to comment on any consultation document produced by the Commission in respect of public water and waste water services, when requested to do so by the Commission;
  - (f) to carry out such other activities in respect of such other matters as the Minister by order specifies.
- (6) The Commission shall provide the Forum with such administrative services, including technical advice, as it requires to discharge its functions.
- (7) The Commission shall—
- (a) not later than 6 months after the passing of this Act, prepare and submit to the Minister a plan for the administrative arrangements for the Forum in respect of the period of 3 years immediately following the year in which the plan is so submitted, and
  - (b) not later than 3 months before each third anniversary of the submission to the Minister of the first plan, prepare and submit to the Minister a plan in respect of the 3 years immediately following the year in which it is submitted.

Editorial Notes:

- E7 Power pursuant to subs. (4) exercised (21.09.2015) by Water Services Act 2014 (Public Water Forum) (Amendment) Regulations 2015 (S.I. No. 405 of 2015).
- E8 Power pursuant to subs. (4) exercised (29.05.2015) by Water Services Act 2014 (Public Water Forum) Regulations 2015 (S.I. No. 234 of 2015).

Customer dispute resolution

8. (1) Subject to this section, the Commission shall provide a dispute resolution service to any customer of Irish Water having an unresolved complaint relating to Irish Water and shall publish the procedures and details of this service on its website on the internet.

(2) The Commission shall not provide the dispute resolution service where the complaint—

- (a) is or has been the subject of legal proceedings before a court,
- (b) is made after the expiration of 6 years from the date on which the cause of the complaint is alleged to have occurred,
- (c) relates to a matter that does not concern the functions or objectives of the Commission under the Water Services Acts 2007 to 2014, or
- (d) is one to which subsection (4) or (7) relates.

(3) For the purpose of paragraph (b) of subsection (2), a matter of a continuing nature is taken to have occurred at the time when it stopped and conduct that consists of series of acts or omissions is taken to have occurred when the last of those acts or omissions occurred.

(4) A person is not entitled to make a complaint unless—

- (a) at the time to which the complaint relates he or she—
  - (i) was registered with Irish Water as a customer,
  - (ii) has previously communicated the substance of his or her complaint to Irish Water in writing, and

(iii) has exhausted any complaints procedures provided by Irish Water in accordance with a code of practice approved by the Commission under section 32 of the No. 2 Act of 2013,

and

(b) a final decision on the complaint has been issued by Irish Water to the customer in writing.

(5) A complaint shall be submitted by the customer to the Commission in writing, other than where the Commission considers it appropriate to accept a complaint that is not in writing.

(6) Where the Commission accepts a complaint that is not in writing, it shall reduce the complaint to writing as soon as possible after receiving it.

(7) The Commission may decide not to provide a dispute resolution service in relation to a complaint where the complaint is, in the opinion of the Commission, vexatious or frivolous or not made in good faith.

(8) Irish Water and any customer availing of the dispute resolution service shall comply with all reasonable requests for information by the Commission in carrying out an investigation into a complaint received by the Commission.

(9) The Commission shall notify the customer concerned in writing of the reasons for its decision.

(10) The Commission shall issue a determination to Irish Water in writing regarding its decision on the matter in dispute (including, where appropriate a requirement to pay a refund or compensation, which shall be proportionate).

(11) Where the subject of a complaint impacts on any other customers of Irish Water, then, the Commission in making its determination under subsection (10) may require Irish Water to comply with the determination in respect of those other customers.

(12) Irish Water shall comply with any requirement made of it in a determination under subsection (10).

(13) The Commission shall prepare and submit an annual report to the Minister on—

- (a) the number and type of complaints received and their resolution,
- (b) any decision by the Commission not to provide a dispute resolution service, and
- (c) the service levels provided by Irish Water.

(14) The Commission may publish an annual report it has submitted to the Minister under subsection (13).

(15) The Commission may, in the public interest, publish an outline of any complaint received (other than any personal information relating to the customer).

(16) Costs may not be awarded to a party under this section.

(17) In this section—

“complaint” means a complaint made by a customer of Irish Water to the Commission under this section;

“customer” in relation to a complaint under this section, includes a former customer of Irish Water to whom subsection (4)(a)(i) applies;

“dispute resolution service” means the service provided under subsection (1).

Superannuation 9. (1) Section 28 of the No. 2 Act of 2013 is amended—

(a) by inserting after subsection (1) the following:

“(1A) A scheme prepared under subsection (1) shall have effect, with respect to the pensionable service of a person mentioned in that subsection, on and from the day the person was accepted into the employment of Irish Water in accordance with section 19 or was appointed under section 27, as the case may be.”,

(b) in subsection (1)(b), by substituting for subparagraph (ii) the following:

“(ii) members of the staff of a local authority or the Local Government Management Agency (unless their contracts of employment provide for a defined contribution scheme).”,

(c) in subsection (7) by substituting for paragraphs (b) and (c) the following:

“(b) Irish Water shall not have any financial liability or responsibility in respect of any scheme made by the Minister under subsection (4) of section 9 of the Water Services Act 2014 for the granting of superannuation benefits in respect of service with the Minister or a local authority or the Local Government Management Agency, as the case may be, before the day the person is accepted under section 19 or appointed under section 27 into the employment or service of Irish Water, except as provided for in paragraph (c).

(c) Any increases in superannuation benefits payable under a scheme under this section which arise due to Irish Water increasing relevant pensionable remuneration or net pensionable remuneration shall be the responsibility of Irish Water.”.

(2) Section 29(2) of the No. 2 Act of 2013 is amended by inserting “or the Local Government Management Agency” after “local authority” in both places it occurs.

(3) Section 28 of the No. 2 Act of 2013 is amended by inserting after subsection (9) the following:

“(10) For the purposes of this section, an appointment under section 27 includes an appointment by Ervia prior to the formation and registration of Irish Water under the Companies Acts of persons who were members of the staff of a local authority immediately before such appointment and commenced employment with Irish Water immediately on ceasing employment with Ervia.”.

(4) Where a person—

(a) is accepted into the employment of Irish Water in accordance with section 19 of the No. 2 Act of 2013, or

(b) is appointed under section 27 of that Act, and, immediately before the appointment, was an officer of the Minister or a member of staff of a local authority, the Minister shall, with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform, make a scheme for the granting of superannuation benefits (within the meaning of section 24 of the No. 2 Act of 2013) in respect of service with the Minister or the local authority concerned, as the case may be, before the day the person is accepted or appointed into the employment or service of Irish Water.

(5) Irish Water does not have any financial liability or responsibility in respect of a scheme prepared by the Minister under subsection (4).

(6) The Minister shall cause every scheme made under subsection (4) to be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made, and if either such House, within the next 21 days on which that House sits after the scheme is laid before it, passes a resolution annulling the scheme, the scheme shall be annulled accordingly, but without prejudice to anything previously done thereunder.

(7) Subsection (5) of section 27 of the No. 2 Act of 2013 is repealed.

(8) Section 4(2) of the No. 2 Act of 2013 is amended by deleting “, 18A (inserted by section 47 of the Gas Regulation Act 2013)”.

(9) A reference in section 18 of the Gas Act 1976 to an officer or servant of the Board includes a reference to a member of the staff of Irish Water who was a member of a scheme under that section immediately before being accepted into the employment of Irish Water.
