- (a) the immediate possession of such property for a period that may equal or exceed 20 years, or
- (b) the receipt of rents or profits of such property for a period that may equal or exceed 20 years, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be a liable person in relation to that property.

(2) If—

- (a) 2 or more persons each have an equal estate, interest or right in a relevant residential property that entitles each of them to the possession or receipt referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b), all of those persons shall, for the purposes of this Act, be liable persons in relation to that property, or

(3) Without prejudice to subsections (1) and (2), the following persons shall, for the purposes of this Act, be liable persons in relation to a relevant residential property (the “property”)—

(4) For the avoidance of doubt—

- (a) in a case where a person is a trustee as referred to in subsection (3)(b), that person shall, for the purposes of this Act, be a liable person in relation to the relevant residential property concerned notwithstanding that the one or more beneficiaries under the trust is or are, for the purposes of this Act, also a liable person or persons in relation to that property, and

(5) The Revenue Commissioners may specify in writing that one of the liable persons referred to in section 42(1) shall be the designated liable person if either—

- (a) they are of the opinion that it would be more appropriate that that person be the designated liable person than the person who would otherwise fall to be treated as the designated liable person by virtue of the operation of subsection (3), or

PART 8

REVENUE ESTIMATES AND ASSESSMENTS

Making of Revenue estimate.

47.— (1) Without prejudice to any other action which may be taken, the Revenue Commissioners [may make, as regards a relevant residential property, an estimate of an amount of local property tax], in relation to a liability date (in this Act referred to as a “Revenue estimate”).

(2) Where a Revenue estimate is made under subsection (1), the Revenue Commissioners shall notify the person in respect of whom the Revenue estimate has been made—

(a) that the Revenue estimate has been made and of its amount, and

(b) that the Revenue estimate shall become due and payable in the circumstances specified in section 49.

[(2A) Where the person whom the Revenue Commissioners are required to notify under subsection (2) is a person to whom section 44(1) applies, it shall be sufficient compliance with subsection (2)(a) for the Revenue Commissioners to notify that person—

(a) that the Revenue estimate or estimates, as the case may be, will be made available by electronic means, and

(b) of the particular electronic means to be used to make that estimate or those estimates available to that person, and to make that document or those documents available by those electronic means accordingly.]

(3) Such a notification may be made to the person by the Revenue Commissioners either before or after the date which, with respect to the liability to pay local property tax in the year concerned, is the return date.

Amendment of Revenue estimate.

48.— (1) Where the Revenue Commissioners are satisfied that a Revenue estimate made under section 47—

(a) is excessive, they may amend the amount so estimated by reducing it, or

(b) is insufficient, they may amend the amount so estimated by increasing it.

(2) Where subsection (1) applies, the Revenue Commissioners shall notify [the person in respect of whom the Revenue estimate has been made], that they have reduced or increased the Revenue estimate, as the case may be.

Revenue estimate
becomes due and payable.

49.— [Subject to sections 51 and 55], where a person is notified of a Revenue estimate and does not prepare and deliver a return which contains a self-assessment and an election for a specified method of payment, the Revenue estimate shall be due and payable as if it were an amount of local property tax contained in a Revenue assessment made under section 55.

Displacement of Revenue estimate
by self-assessment.

50.— (1) Subject to section 55, where a return which includes—

(a) a self-assessment, and

(b) an election, as mentioned in section 41(1)(a), for a specified method of payment, is delivered after a Revenue estimate has become due and payable in accordance with section 49, the Revenue estimate shall be discharged and section 53 shall apply accordingly.

(2) Where subsection (1) applies—

(a) any payment that has been made against the Revenue estimate shall be treated as made against the local property tax payable on foot of the self-assessment, and

(b) subject to section 960H of the Act of 1997 (as applied by section 120), where any payment made against the Revenue estimate exceeds the amount of the self-assessment, the amount of the excess shall be repaid.

Claim by person notified of estimate that he or she is not a liable person.

51.— Where, following a notification, in accordance with section 34, by a person who does not consider that he or she is a liable person, either the Revenue Commissioners or the Appeal Commissioners determine that the person is not a liable person, the Revenue estimate in relation to that person shall be discharged.

Self-assessment.

52.— In this Act, “self-assessment” means an assessment by a liable person in a return, or by a person acting under the authority of a liable person, of the amount of local property tax payable by the liable person in respect of a relevant residential property in relation to a liability date.

Local property tax payable in accordance with self-assessment.

53.— Subject to sections 49 and 55, the local property tax payable by a liable person shall be the amount of the self-assessment.

Revenue assessment.

54.— (1) An assessment made by a Revenue officer under this Part (in this Act referred to as a “Revenue assessment”)—

(a) on a liable person, or

(b) on a person who the Revenue officer has reason to believe is a liable person, is an assessment to local property tax in relation to the person referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) and a liability date of an amount as, according to the officer’s best judgment, ought to be made, which assessment—

(i) shall take account of any local property tax that has been paid to the Revenue Commissioners in respect of local property tax payable in respect of the liability date before the assessment is made, and

(ii) may relate to local property tax chargeable in respect of more than one relevant residential property in relation to which a person is a liable person.

[(2) Where a Revenue assessment relates to local property tax chargeable in respect of more than one relevant residential property, the assessment shall set out the local property tax chargeable in respect of each property.

(3) Where a Revenue assessment is made, the amount of local property tax due and payable shall be the amount contained in the Revenue assessment and not the amount contained in any self-assessment or Revenue estimate.]

Making of Revenue assessment.

55.— Notwithstanding sections 49 and 53, but subject to subsections (1) and (2) of section 58, a Revenue officer may make a Revenue assessment where—

(a) a self-assessment or a Revenue estimate has not been made, or

(b) the Revenue officer has reason to believe that a self-assessment is insufficient.

Notice of assessment.

56.— (1) Where a Revenue officer makes a Revenue assessment, the officer shall give notice (in this Act referred to as a “notice of assessment”), to the liable person, or to the person who the Revenue officer has reason to believe is a liable person, of the assessment and the time allowed to the person for giving notice of appeal against the assessment.

(2) The notice referred to in subsection (1) may include—

- (a) the chargeable value of the relevant residential property to which the assessment relates,
- (b) the local property tax payable by the liable person, or the person who the Revenue officer has reason to believe is a liable person, or the balance of any local property tax payable by, or repayable to, that person, as the case may be, and
- (c) the name of the Revenue officer who is giving the notice and the address of the Revenue office at which that officer is based.

(3) The Revenue Commissioners shall keep a record of each Revenue assessment made.

[(4) In any proceedings for the recovery of local property tax, a statement signed by a Revenue officer that a Revenue assessment was made and setting out the details of the assessment as recorded by the Revenue Commissioners shall be evidence of that assessment until the contrary is proved.]

Amendment of a Revenue assessment.

57.— (1) Subject to section 58(1) and (2), a Revenue officer may at any time amend a Revenue assessment as the officer considers necessary, notwithstanding that local property tax may have been paid or repaid in respect of the assessment and notwithstanding that the officer may have amended the assessment on a previous occasion.

(2) The Revenue officer shall notify the liable person, or the person who the Revenue officer has reason to believe is a liable person, of the assessment as amended under subsection (1).

(3) The provisions of this Part [and of Parts 9, 11 and 14] shall, with any necessary modifications, apply in like manner to an amended assessment and a notice of amended assessment as they apply to an assessment and a notice of assessment.

Time limits for making assessments.

58.— (1) A Revenue assessment may not be made before the relevant return date unless a liable person has delivered a return before that date.

(2) Where a liable person has delivered a return which contains a full and true disclosure of all matters necessary for the establishment of the correct liability to local property tax—

- (a) a Revenue assessment shall not be made,
- (b) no additional local property tax shall be payable, and
- (c) no local property tax shall be repaid, after the end of 4 years commencing on 1 January following the year in which the relevant liability date falls, by reason of any matter contained in the return.

(3) An objection to the making of a Revenue assessment on the grounds that the time limited for the making of the assessment has expired shall be made only on appeal against the assessment within the time allowed to the liable person for giving notice of appeal against the assessment.

(4) Nothing in this section prevents a Revenue officer from, at any time, amending a Revenue assessment—

(a) where a return does not contain a full and true disclosure of the facts referred to in subsection (2),

(b) to give effect to the determination of an appeal against the Revenue assessment, or

(c) to correct an error in calculation, and local property tax shall be paid or repaid where appropriate in accordance with any such amendment, notwithstanding section 26.

Appeals against Revenue assessments.

59.— [(1) Subject to subsection (2), a person aggrieved by a Revenue assessment made on that person may appeal the assessment to the Appeal Commissioners, in accordance with section 949I of the Act of 1997, within the period of 30 days after the date of the notice of assessment.]

(2) A liable person may not appeal to the Appeal Commissioners until such time as the liable person has prepared and delivered the relevant return and paid the amount of local property tax contained in the self-assessment.

[(3) In default of an appeal, in accordance with subsection (1), being made by a person to whom a notice of assessment has been given, the assessment made on the person shall be final and conclusive.]

(4) [...]

(5) [...]

Claim that person not a liable person.

60.— Where a person who has been given a notice of assessment considers that he or she is not a liable person, that person shall be treated as if he or she had been required by notice by the Revenue Commissioners under section 33(1) to prepare and deliver a return and section 34(3) and the other provisions of Part 7 shall apply accordingly as if the date referred to in section 34(3) were the date of the notice of assessment.

and the revised direction shall replace any previous direction given to the employer in respect of the liable person and a liability date.

71.— (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), where a liable person notifies the Revenue Commissioners that he or she no longer wishes to have local property tax deducted from his or her net emoluments, the Revenue Commissioners shall direct the liable person's employer not to make any further deductions from the liable person's net emoluments.

(a) where a liable person does not agree an alternative method of payment with the Revenue Commissioners, or

(b) where such an alternative method is so agreed but the liable person has not delivered a true and complete return to the Revenue Commissioners, unless and until the liable person delivers a true and complete return to them.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not apply where it appears to the Revenue Commissioners that to act in accordance with that subsection would adversely affect the timely collection of local property tax.

Deduction by employer.

72.— (1) An employer who is directed by the Revenue Commissioners under section 65 to deduct local property tax from a liable person's net emoluments shall do so at a time and frequency which corresponds with the payment of the liable person's emoluments.

(2) To the extent that there are not, in the period specified in the direction concerned, sufficient net emoluments paid to the liable person to meet the whole amount of local property tax concerned, this section shall be read as only being applicable to the portion of that amount of local property tax that can be met by deductions in those circumstances and section 74 shall be read accordingly, but this subsection is without prejudice to sections 70 and 76.

(3) On any payment of net emoluments to or on behalf of a liable person, the employer shall deduct local property tax in accordance with subsection (4).

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the amount of local property tax to be deducted from a liable person's net emoluments on each payday is the amount determined by the following formula:

(5) Where an employer is unable to deduct the amount of local property tax determined by the formula in subsection (4) because of an insufficiency of net emoluments made to a liable person on a particular payday, the employer shall—

- (a) make up any under-deduction from net emoluments to be paid to the liable person later in the period specified in the direction as soon as is practicable, and
- (b) notify the Revenue Commissioners that he or she was unable to deduct the required amount of local property tax and the notification shall specify the amount of local property tax that was not deducted.

(6) Where an employer is unable to make up the amount of any under-deduction referred to in subsection (5) before the end of the period specified in the direction, the employer shall notify the Revenue Commissioners accordingly as soon as he or she becomes aware of this.

Cessation of employment.

73.— Where a liable person, in respect of whom a direction has been given to an employer under section 65 ceases employment with the employer before the full amount of the local property tax contained in the direction has been deducted, the employer shall immediately send to the Revenue Commissioners a statement in the form specified by them.

Payment of local property tax deducted by employer.

74.— (1) Subject to sections 72(1) and 73, an employer shall be accountable for the amount of local property tax deductible, and shall be liable to remit that amount to the Revenue Commissioners, as if it were an amount of income tax deductible in accordance with the PAYE Regulations.

(2) An employer shall remit to the Collector-General the amount of local property tax which the employer is directed under section 65 to deduct and the remittance shall be made at the same time and in the same manner as the remittance of income tax which the employer is required under Regulation 28 or, as the case may be, Regulation 29 of the PAYE Regulations to make.

Failure by employer to remit local property tax.

75.— (1) Without prejudice to any action which may be taken under section 76, where an employer who was liable to remit an amount of local property tax in accordance with Regulation 28 or 29, as the case may be, of the PAYE Regulations, which amount was to be determined in accordance with section 72(4), failed to remit this amount and—

- (a) did not notify the Revenue Commissioners in accordance with section 72(5)(b) or send a statement to the Revenue Commissioners in accordance with section 73, or
- (b) notified the Revenue Commissioners in accordance with section 72(5)(b), but remitted a lesser amount than the amount specified in the notification, the Revenue Commissioners may give notice to the employer of the amount which the employer failed to remit.

(2) A notice given to an employer under subsection (1) shall be treated as a demand for payment by the Collector-General under section 960E(2) of the Act of 1997 (as applied by section 120) and subsection (3) of that section 960E shall apply accordingly.

(3) A notice given under subsection (1) may relate to local property tax that should have been remitted for any part, or for all, of the period specified in the direction given under section 65.

(a) the amount not deducted may be included in any direction given to the employer in respect of a liable person for a subsequent period, or

(b) the Revenue Commissioners may agree an alternative method of payment with the liable person.

Over-deduction of local property tax by employer. 77.— Subject to section 960H of the Act of 1997 (as applied by section 120) and section 26, where the amount of local property tax deducted by an employer from a liable person's net emoluments in the period specified in the direction given under section 65 exceeds the amount which the employer is liable to remit to the Collector-General under section 74, the Revenue Commissioners shall repay the excess to the liable person.

Deduction from net emoluments of certain company directors. 78.— Where a liable person has a material interest in a company (within the meaning of section 997A of the Act of 1997), that section [...] shall apply as if, in subsections (3) to (6) and (8)—

(a) the reference to tax were a reference to local property tax, and

(b) the reference to emoluments were a reference to net emoluments, and as if, in subsection (3), the reference to an assessment raised on a person were a reference to a Revenue estimate, a self-assessment or a Revenue assessment, as the case may be, made under Part 8.

Return by employer at end of year. 79.— Within 46 days after the end of a year, or from the date an employer ceases permanently to be an employer to whom Regulation 7(1) of the PAYE Regulations applies, whichever is the earlier, the employer shall send to the Collector-General in relation to any liable person in respect of whom the employer was given a direction under section 65a statement and a signed declaration in the specified form showing—

(a) the total net emoluments paid to the liable person during the year,

(b) the total local property tax deducted from the net emoluments paid to the liable person, and

(c) the name and personal public service number of the liable person.

(a) who is in the employer's employment on the last day of a year, and

(b) from whose net emoluments local property tax was deducted during that year, a statement showing, in respect of that year, the total local property tax deducted from the liable person's net emoluments.

Employer to keep records. 81.— (1) An employer who has been given a direction under section 65 shall keep records in relation to—

(a) the payment of net emoluments to the liable person in respect of whom the direction was given,

(b) the deduction of local property tax from the liable person's net emoluments, and

(c) the remittance of local property tax deducted to the Revenue Commissioners.

(2) An employer—

(a) shall retain the records referred to in subsection (1) for a period of 6 years from the end of the year to which they relate, and

(b) shall produce those records for inspection to a Revenue officer where the officer requests the employer to do so under section 903 (as applied by Part 13) of the Act of 1997.

Employer treated as if net emoluments paid to a liable person.

82.— Where an amount of local property tax is, in accordance with this Chapter, deducted by an employer from the net emoluments paid to a liable person, the employer shall be acquitted and discharged of such amount as is represented by the deduction, as if the amount had actually been paid to the liable person.
